

The Minster Church
of St John the Baptist, Halifax
All Saint's Sunday

Sunday 31st October 2021

10:30am: Sung Eucharist

President & Preacher: Rt Revd Jonathan Gibbs
Bishop of Huddersfield

Refreshments are served at the back of the church
after our services.

Car Parking: beware! The on-street car parking and the Calderdale car parks on King Street are no longer free on Sundays and evenings – check the signage!

Coronavirus Advice: Eucharist will continue to be taken in 'one kind'. i.e the wafer only. Please use the hand sanitiser on entry to the Minster and wear a face-covering unless you are well away from others. Social distancing will be maintained in the side aisle pews.

4.00pm: Choral Evensong and celebration of the retirement of The Ven Dr Anne Dawtry,
Archdeacon of Halifax

Officiant: Rt Revd Nick Baines,
Bishop of Leeds

We welcome clergy and representatives from across the Diocese of Leeds and the choir of Huddersfield Parish Church to join our own choir. Refreshments will be served afterwards.

Place & Space: was brought into being following a need by Piece Hall workers to provide a quiet space for people who were struggling, especially with mental health issues. The Rokeby chapel has been re-ordered as a set-apart, designated space, with funding from the Bishop's Development Fund. Drop in during the launch event on Monday November 1st between 12-2pm

The Halifax Choral Society sing the Durufle Requiem at their next concert at the Minster on Saturday November 6th at 6.30pm. The concert is accompanied by Darius Battiwala on the organ and begins the remembrance events at the Minster. Tickets available <https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/169260742437>

All Soul's Memorial Service: will take place at the Minster on Sunday November 7th at 4pm. Families who have had funerals conducted by the Minster have been invited to this service which will include lighting candles to remember those lost in recent years. The names of the recently departed will be read out at this service. There is a list of names to be read out at the welcome desk at the back of church if you would like to add a name.

Remembrance Sunday, November 14th: The service will commence at 10.45 at the Cenotaph and will continue in the Minster. In the afternoon at 4pm there is 'Music and Poetry for Remembrance'

Details of all events at the Minster, including those for Advent and Christmas can be seen in the Minster calendar available on the website as below.
